A. WHY IS THIS NOTICE IMPORTANT?

A class action has been commenced in the Federal Court of Australia (Court) by Alois Jack (Lead Applicant). The action arises out of offers of employment made by Corestaff NT Pty Ltd (Corestaff) in or about 2011/2012 and Corestaff's subsequent conduct as alleged.

The Court has ordered that this notice be published for the information of persons who might be members of the class on whose behalf the action is brought and may be affected by the action. You should read this notice carefully. Any questions you have concerning the matters contained in this notice should not be directed to the Court. If there is anything in this notice that you do not understand, you should seek legal advice.

This notice contains important information regarding the proposed settlement of the class action.

As explained in Part I below, you may do one of four things in response to this notice by 23 May 2022:

1. opt out of the class action and lose a right to getting any compensation from the class action (but retain the right to try and seek compensation under any claim that you commence yourself);
2. register in the class action so that you may be considered for compensation;
3. do nothing; or
4. object to the proposed settlement.

B. WHAT IS A CLASS ACTION?

A class action is an action that is brought by one person (the applicant) on his or her own behalf and on behalf of a class or group of people known here as the "Group Members" against another person (the respondent) where the applicant and the Group Members have similar claims against the respondent. The respondent in the present case is Corestaff.

Group Members in a class action are not individually responsible for the legal costs associated with bringing the class action. In a class action, only the applicant is responsible for the costs.

Group Members are "bound" by the outcome in the class action unless they have opted out of the proceeding. A binding result can happen in two ways, being either a judgment following a trial or a settlement at any time. If there is a judgment or a settlement of a class action, Group Members will not be able to pursue the same claims and may not be able to pursue similar or related claims against the respondent in other legal proceedings. Group Members should note that:

1. in a judgment following trial, the Court will decide various factual and legal issues in respect of the claims made by the applicant and Group Members. Unless those decisions are successfully appealed, they bind the applicant, Group Members and the respondent. Importantly, if there are other proceedings between a Group Member and the respondent, it is likely that neither of them will be permitted to raise arguments in that proceeding which are inconsistent with a factual or legal issue decided in the class action; and

2. in a settlement of a class action, where the settlement provides for compensation to Group Members it is likely to extinguish all rights to compensation which a class member might have against the respondent which arise in any way out of the events or transactions which are the subject-matter of the class action.

If you consider that you have claims against Corestaff which are based on your individual circumstances or otherwise additional to the claims described in the Corestaff Class Action (as defined below), then it is important that you seek independent legal advice about the potential binding effects of the Corestaff Class Action.

C. WHAT IS THIS CLASS ACTION AND WHO ARE GROUP MEMBERS?

On 22 November 2018, the Lead Applicant instituted a representative proceeding against Corestaff pursuant to Part IVA of the Federal Court of Australia Act 1976 (Cth) in the Court, being part of proceeding no. NSD 2162/2018 (Corestaff Class Action).

The Corestaff Class Action relates to offers of employment made by Corestaff in or about 2011/2012 and Corestaff's subsequent conduct.

You are a Group Member in the Corestaff Class Action if you:

1. received a standard form letter with the subject line "Re: Offer of Employment" from Corestaff in or about 2011 or 2012 (Offer Letter);
2. received a letter from Corestaff on or after 23 November 2012 advising you that your services were no longer required (Termination Letter); and
3. suffered loss and damage as a result of Corestaff's termination of your employment.

If you are unsure whether or not you are a Group Member, you should contact Levitt Robinson Solicitors using the details listed in Part J below of this Notice or seek your own independent legal advice without delay.

The Lead Applicant alleges in his statement of claim that Corestaff breached contractual obligations it owed to the Lead Applicant and Group Members and/or engaged in conduct which contravened sections 18 and 31 of the Australian Consumer Law.

Corestaff denies these allegations and is defending the Corestaff Class Action.

D. WHAT IS 'OPT OUT' AND CLASS CLOSURE?

Opt-Out

The applicant in a class action does not need to seek the consent of Group Members to commence a class action on their behalf or to identify a specific Group Member.

However, Group Members can cease to be Group Members by opting out of the class action. An explanation of how class members are able to opt out is provided in Section I below.

If you opt out:

1. you may be able to bring your own claim against Corestaff, if you issue Court proceedings within the time limit applicable to your claim, and
2. you will not be bound by or entitled to any share or benefit of any order, judgment, or settlement in the class action, including in the proposed settlement contained in this notice.

You should seek legal advice before opting out. Opting out is a serious step and you should not do it unless you understand what it means.

If you opt out, then if you want to claim compensation from Corestaff, you will need to bring your own action, if there is time for you to do so. As the allegations against Corestaff date back to November 2012, and the limitation period for those who opt out will start to run again from when you opt out, you may have only a short period to bring your own action or may be required to immediately file your action.

If you wish to opt out, you need to complete the form titled “Opt Out Notice” included in this notice as Form 3. The Form should be sent directly to the Federal Court of Australia, New South Wales District Registry (see Part J below). The deadline to do this is by 23 May 2022.

Class Closure

The Applicants in the Corestaff Class Action are seeking a Class Closure Order for the purposes of settlement approval and distribution of the settlement monies.

If the order is made, this will mean that if you do not register in the class action:

1. you will remain a Group Member unless you have opted out; and
2. you will be bound by but not entitled to any share or benefit of any order, judgement, or settlement in the class action, including in the proposed settlement contained in this notice.

If you have already signed a funding agreement with the funder, Omni Bridgeway Limited (Funder), you do not need to register again, but you will be contacted to provide additional information if needed.

If you have not already signed a funding agreement with the Funder, and you wish to receive compensation from the settlement, you must register in the class action by 23 May 2022 by completing and returning the Claim Submission Form included in this notice as Form 1.

E. WILL YOU BE LIABLE FOR LEGAL COSTS IF YOU REMAIN A GROUP MEMBER?

No. You will not become liable for any legal costs simply by remaining as a Group Member. However:

1. if the preparation or finalisation of your personal claim requires work to be done in relation to issues that are specific to your claim, you can engage Levitt Robinson Solicitors or other lawyers to do that work for you. A copy of the terms on which Levitt Robinson Solicitors are acting in the

Corestaff Class Action may be obtained from them by contacting Levitt Robinson Solicitors at the details set out in Part J below;

2. if any compensation becomes payable to you as a result of any order, judgment or settlement in the Corestaff Class Action, the Court may make an order that some of that compensation be used to help pay a share of the costs which are incurred by the Lead Applicant in running the Corestaff Class Action, but which are not able to be recovered from Corestaff; and
3. class actions are often settled out of court. If this occurs in the Corestaff Class Action, you may be able to claim from the settlement amount without retaining a lawyer.

F. THE PROPOSED SETTLEMENT

The Lead Applicant (on behalf of all Group Members) and Corestaff have agreed (subject to Court approval) to settle the Corestaff Class Action.

The proposed settlement involves Corestaff paying AU$6.4 million (Settlement Sum) on the terms and conditions contained in a Deed of Settlement and Release, without any admission of liability by Corestaff.

The proposed settlement relates not only to the Corestaff Class Action, but also other claims, being:

1. proceedings commenced in the Court by 19 applicants, excluding the Lead Applicant and being the remainder of NSD2162/2018 (Alternative Contract Proceedings); and
2. proceedings commenced in the Court by Mr Tami Kunjil and numbered NSD2024/2018 (Kunjil Proceeding).

The settlement, if approved by the Court, will discharge Corestaff from any claim or cause of action arising out of the matters or circumstances in the Corestaff Class Action, the Alternative Contract Proceedings, and the Kunjil Proceeding.

As this litigation has been funded by a litigation funder, the Funder is entitled to charge litigation funding expenses, which are the benefits conferred on the Funder for its involvement in the Corestaff Class Action, the Alternative Contract Proceedings and the Kunjil Proceeding. Under the funding agreement, the Funder is entitled to recover the legal costs and disbursements that it paid during the course of these proceedings. The amount of these legal costs and disbursements is estimated at AU$1,565,000 up to, and including, finalisation of the administration. The legal costs and disbursements will be deducted from the Settlement Sum, subject to Court approval.

The Funder will also be entitled to be paid its funding commission. At the date of this notice, and subject to Court approval, the funding commission that the funder is entitled to under the funding agreement is 35% of the amounts of money recovered by the persons who have signed the funding agreement with the Funder.

To obtain its funding commission from the Settlement Sum, either a Common Fund Order (CFO) by the Funder or a Funding Equalisation Order (FEO) by the Applicants will be sought from the Court.

A CFO is an order of the Court that provides for the Funder to receive a percentage of the Settlement Sum that the Court considers to be fair and reasonable, which is deducted from the Settlement Sum before distribution to Group Members. This means that if a CFO is made, all Group Members will contribute to the Funder's funding commission, regardless of whether they have signed the funding agreement with the Funder.

If the Funder does not seek a CFO, it will assert its contractual rights to its funding commission, and if so, the Applicants will seek a FEO. A FEO is an order of the Court that requires the 'unfunded group members' (being those Group Members who have not signed the funding agreement with the Funder) to contribute equally to the funding commission that 'funded group members' (being those Group Members who have signed the funding agreement with the Funder) have agreed to pay to the Funder under their funding agreements. This means that if a FEO is made, all Group Members, both funded and unfunded, will contribute equally to the commission that funded Group Members have agreed to pay to the Funder.

Approximately 63% of the Group Members identified by Levitt Robinson Solicitors are funded Group Members from whom the Funder is contractually entitled to receive its funding commission. The total percentage of funded Group Members as a whole of people who apply to participate in the Settlement Scheme will vary depending on how many people apply and whether those people are funded.

The total amount of the Settlement Sum that is available for distribution between Group Members will vary depending on whether the Funder seeks and obtains a CFO or if the Applicants seek and obtain a FEO. The Funder will make a decision as to whether it will seek a CFO and, if so, at what percentage up to 35% or in the alternative, a FEO at 35% after the period to apply to participate in the Settlement Scheme has expired.

If a CFO was made at the level of the Funder's contractual entitlement, the Funder would be entitled to a payment of funding commission in the amount of AU$2,240,000 (being 35% of AU$6.4 million). If a FEO at 35% was made, the Funder would be entitled to a payment of funding commission in the range AU$1,400,000 to AU$2,240,000, depending on how many presently unfunded Group Members apply to participate in the Settlement Scheme.

The proposed settlement also proposes that a benefit in the amount of AU$20,000 be paid to the Lead Applicant in addition to any compensation that he is entitled to receive. This amount, if approved by the Court, is reimbursement for the significant time that the Lead Applicant has spent in the course of the Corestaff Class Action performing his role for the benefit of Group Members. The amount will be deducted from the Settlement Sum.

The remainder of the Settlement Sum will be distributed to the Group Members and the Applicants in the Alternative Contract Proceedings and the Kunjil Proceeding in accordance with the Settlement Scheme. The precise amount that each Group Member or Applicant will receive under the Settlement Scheme cannot be calculated at this time, as the number of individuals who intend to make a claim is not yet confirmed, nor are the details and value of their claims.

On an indicative basis only and subject to Court approval, the deductions from and distribution of the Settlement Sum may be as set out in the Table below.

Item	CFO at 35%	FEO at 35%
Settlement Sum	AU$6,400,000	AU$6,400,000
Less legal costs and disbursements	(AU$1,565,000)	(AU$1,565,000)
Less funding commission	(AU$2,240,000)	(AU$1,400,000 to AU$2,240,000)
Less additional payment to the Lead Applicant	(AU$20,000)	(AU$20,000)
Net Settlement Sum for distribution to Applicants and Group Members	AU$2,575,000	AU$2,575,000 to AU$3,415,000

G. PAYMENT OF CLAIMS
